

Team Berndt wins Egg Toss

Soft ground conditions aided all of the teams as we recorded one of the most balanced and deepest fields in the history of the Egg Toss competition. Team Berndt won by a large margin with 80 throws (second all-time behind last year's record of 90 by Team Goucher). Second went to Team Heebink with 65 throws.

Matt Wilson, one of the captains of Team Berndt, described the experience as surreal but humbling. He went on to say how special it was that his wife Betsy and two children, Bert and Berniece, were present at Trewick Stadium for the dramatic win. "When you think back to all of the greats who've gone before us, it's just an honor to follow in their footsteps," said the teary-eyed Wilson.

The only negative on the day was when Plymouth police had to escort sophomore Billy Jeide away. Charges of assault with an egg have been filed, but more serious charges might be leveled depending upon the condition of his victim. (It is website policy not to mention victims by name, unless we want to make fun of them). Jeide showed a general lack of remorse as he screamed, "You're not going to keep me in the big house for long, Copper! I've got friends!" To which his teammate Kevin Myers observed, "Really, who...?"

Results

- 1. Team Berndt 80
- 2. Team Heebink 65
- 3. Team Bartels 62* (they had 66, but threw 16 eggs rather than the standard 15)
- 4. Team Jahn 60
- 5. Team Popp 55
- 6. Team O'Neill 53